

FAMILY FUN AT THE FAIR

The thrilling Log Flume ride

On the Swiss Skyride

Buying souvenir Fair hats

Getting a better view

The Danish playground offers baby-sitting attendants

Children love the Avis Antique auto ride

Trying Bell's new push-button telephone

Here's how a family of 4 spent an exciting day for only $7.46— including lunch and dinner!

(excluding Fair admission)

The New York World's Fair offers a world of fun for the whole family to enjoy together, and it can be surprisingly inexpensive. Look how much this did—for so little.

• Watched themselves on Color television at the RCA pavilion. Free • Saw fabulous jeweled carpet at the pavilion of India. Free • Visited replica of Thailand's Temple of Dawn. Free • Rode through General Motors' "Futurama II." Free • Viewed Michelangelo's "Pieta" at Vatican pavilion. Free • Took a ride along Ford's "Magic Skyway." Free • Ate four generous slices of Carousel Park pizza. 25¢ each • Had four Cokes. 10¢ each • Drove in Avis antique cars. 35¢, children; 50¢ adults • Rode the "People Wall" at IBM's pavilion. Free • Viewed New York City on simulated helicopter ride in New York City pavilion. 10¢ each • Watched the magic show at General Cigar. Free • Marveled at the "flying bird-men" at the Mexican exhibit—and the native dances that followed. Free • Heard pop concert at Singer Bowl; then saw million-dollar fabric collection. Free • Had four full-course Chinese dinners at Chun King restaurant. 99¢ each • Saw dancers and singers at the New York State pavilion. Free • Heard the incredibly lifelike Lincoln talk at the Illinois pavilion. Free • Enjoyed the porpoise show at the Florida pavilion. Free • Looked at sculpture in Austria's unusual A-shape wooden pavilion. Free • Watched the fireworks show at the Fountain of the Planets. Free • Went home tired but delighted.

Total cost: $7.46 for two adults and two children.

The family's teen-agers especially will enjoy . . .

The auto driving game at Socony Mobil's pavilion. Free • General Electric's show featuring a controlled nuclear explosion. Free • Music by Paul Lavalle's Cities Service Band of America. Free • Dancing to Guy Lombardo's orchestra at the Tiparillo bandstand. Free • The Monorail ride in the Lake area. 60¢, children; 80¢, adults.

The family's younger ones especially will enjoy . . .

The boat ride through Pepsi-Cola's "It's a Small World," the enchanting Walt Disney salute to UNICEF. 60¢, children; 90¢, adults • A ride on U.S. Rubber's giant tire Ferris wheel. 50¢ • Africa exhibit with zoo, Watusi dancers. $1.00, adults; 50¢, children • Baird Marionettes at Chrysler exhibit. Free • Selecting an international Pen Pal at the Parker Pen exhibit. Free

The whole family has fun at the New York World's Fair!
NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR—1965